2008 Dedication

A professor of Psychology and an active participant in the college's plays, Michael McKay passed away in December. He will be missed for his kindness, his enthusiasm, and his eagerness for his students to learn.

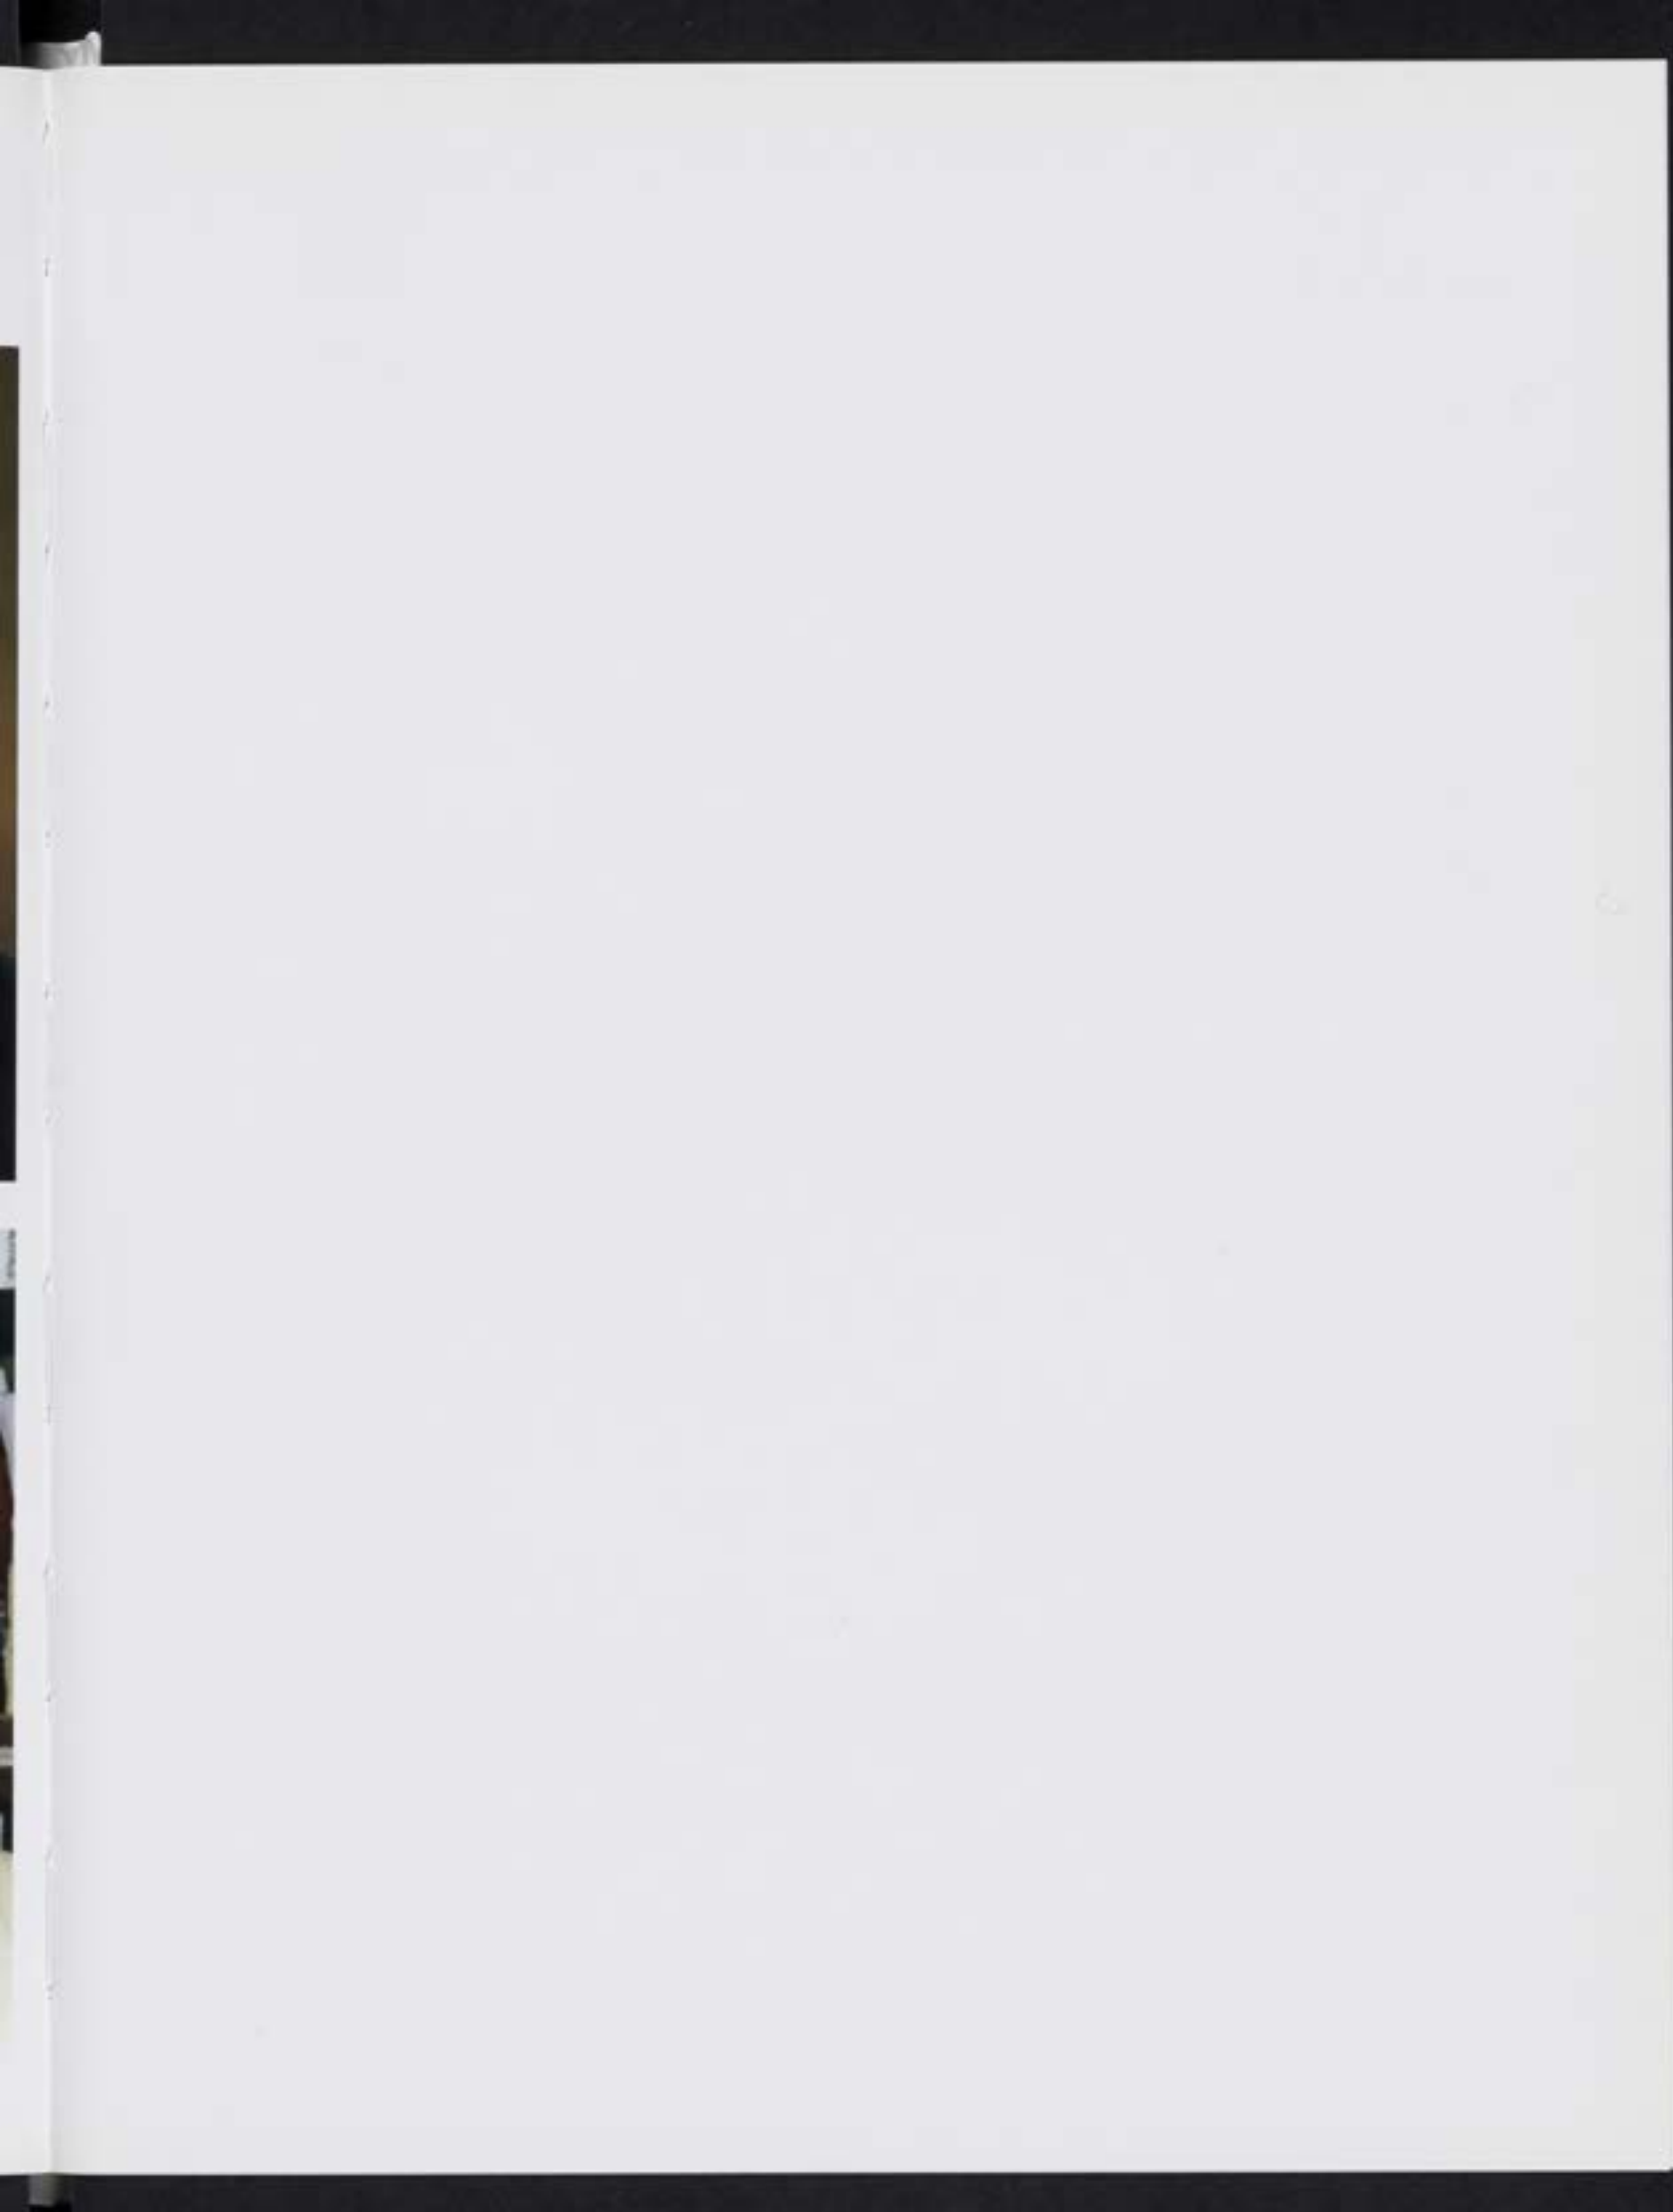

After 40 years at Randolph-Macon as a professor of Political Science, Bruce Unger died in January. His high expectations of his students to perform well in the classroom and his friendliness outside of the classroom made him a beloved professor that students will never forget.

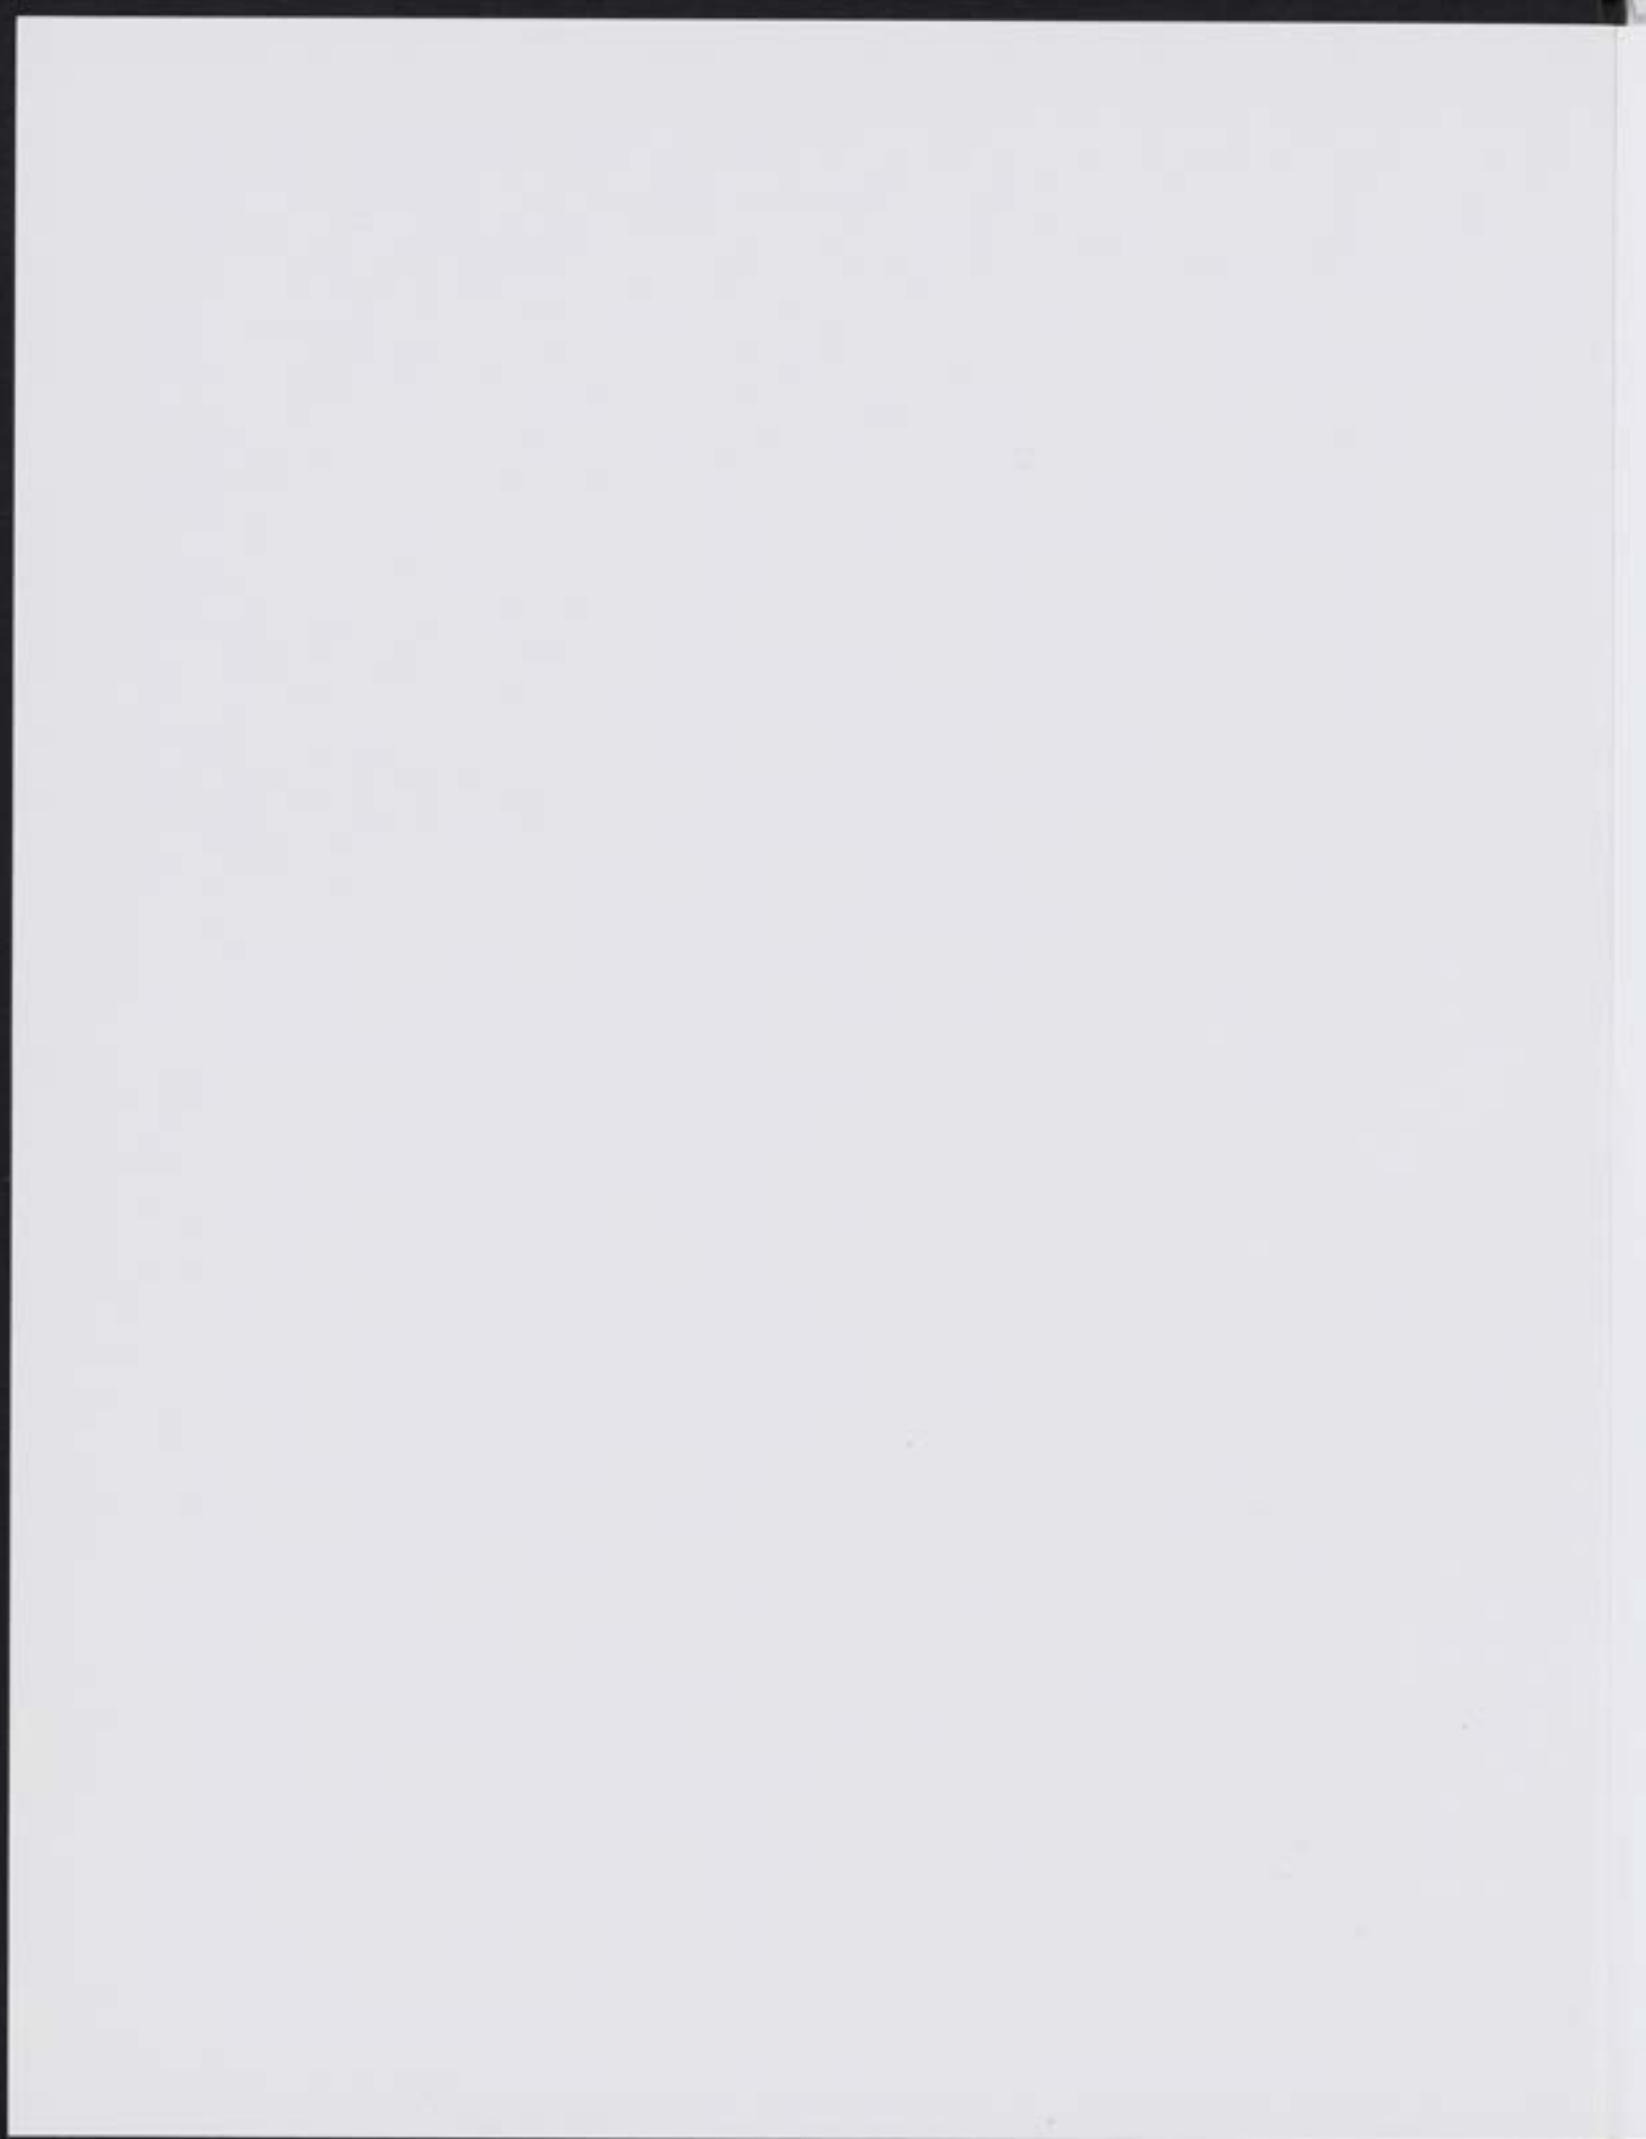

On behalf of the Yearbook staff I would like to thank Professor Connors, the Yearbook Advisor, for allowing me to break deadlines while making sure that pages get done. Each year the Yearbook has grown and the quality has improved. Without her knowledge of a successful yearbook and her willingness to listen to and advise on new ideas, the book would not be what it is today. I would also like to thank the staff, Harri Le, Ashley Morris, Mary Good, and Crystal Snyder for their work. I particularly thank Harri and Ashley for putting up with my ragging. I wish Harri the best next year as she takes on the job of Editor. To those of you who have put up with our continual emails and occasional face to face harassment for photographs, I thank you. I also thank you for getting your photographs taken and hope in years to come you look through this book with a smile. I hope that you all enjoy the book as much as I have enjoyed being a part of the staff for four years and as much as the staff have enjoyed putting it together.

Thank you again to everyone who contributed to this year's Yearbook,
Virginia Seatherton
Yearbook Editor
