Fall Convocation

1. An illustrious group on stage in Blackwell. 2. Robin Anne Floyd and Ed Smith wondered, "Will we really graduate?" 3. President Payne presented an honorary award to the speaker, Kenneth Tomlinson.

“What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?”

— Cicero

Fall Convocation on September 20 honored faculty members with tenure and promotions. Those granted tenure were Dr. Amy deGraff, Dr. Mary Edwards-Kitterman, Dr. William Hesse, and Dr. Michael Wessells. Two were promoted to assistant professor, Ray Berry and Elsa Falls. Hal Nunnally and Michael Wessells were promoted to associate professors. Three were granted full professorships, Bruce Unger, Ritchie Watson, and Helmut Werner. Thomas Inge was named the Blackwell Professor of Humanities.

Kenneth Tomlinson, a 1966 graduate of R-MC, delivered the address. He was presented with the President's Award by Dr. Ladell Payne.

1. Do they teach you in college how to form a line? 2. Dr. Franz, the flag bearer. 3. This audience looks solemn.

Homecoming 1984

October 20, 1984, marked another victorious Homecoming Day at Randolph-Macon. Catholic University was defeated 37-18 before a crowd of several thousand. Half-time festivities highlighted the game as Andrea Strouse, representative for ΣΑΕ, was crowned Queen by Grace Burke, last year's winner.

Fourteen other girls comprised the Court, representing each Greek organization and the four classes. Those representatives were as follows: Senior Class, Chris Keegan; Junior Class, Megan O'Neill; Sophomore Class, Beth Lambert; Freshman Class, Kim Shriner; ΑΕΠ, Mara Mezmalis; ΚΑ, Beth Clarkson; ΚΑΘ, Liz Foote; ΚΣ, Angie Farley; ΔΧΑ, Elizabeth Caffrey; ΦΔΘ, Monica Robl; ΦΚΣ, Michelle Sampson; ΦΜ, Maureen Orr; ΣΦΕ, Amy Glaeser; and ΘΧ, Kathleen Knight.

That evening a Homecoming Dance was held for the student body in the Alumni Gym. This dance featured the music of "Power Play." 1. Alumni of the 1940's enjoyed a reunion in Crenshaw Gym. 2. Elizabeth Caffrey, was escorted by Jeff Rebich of Lambda Chi. 3. Half-time on the field. 4. Brad Hale accompanied Kathleen Knight, representative for Theta Chi.

"Old homes! old hearts!
Upon my soul forever
Their peace and gladness lie
like tears and laughter."

— Madison Cawein

1. Andrea Strouse, Homecoming Queen 1984, accompanied by Jeff Button. 2. A guest band played at half-time. 3. Kappa Sig came through again with a spirit-filled float to cheer the Yellow Jackets to victory over the Cardinals. 4. Jeff Bisson and Mara Mezmalis, representing AEP, took their place in the parade down Henry St. 5. The Homecoming Court waited patiently on the bleachers. 6. Megan O'Neill, representative for the Junior Class, was accompanied by Jerry Lebo. 7. The victorious game.

1. Dr. Russell Bourne and other professors presented lectures on a variety of subjects for the parents. 2. The annual dinner in Estes Dining Hall is enjoyed by Preston Bryant, George Emerson, and their parents. 3. Parents waited by the fountain for a change. 4. The "Squatty Bodies," consisting of Chris LaPlaca, Melanie Culp, Sophie White, and JoAnn Cichowicz, were the hit of the Variety Show.

Parents' Weekend

1. Dr. "Dazoo" Longaker and his wife sang folk songs at the Variety Show. 2. John Chambliss and his parents, along with many others, attended the football game at Frostburg State. 3. Robin Anne Floyd and Mike McGuire emceed the Student/Faculty Variety Show. 4. Charles Haynes, Director of Religious Life, transformed himself to find the meaning of life.

“Education commences

Winter Ball

1. Are you ready for this? 2. And then you take three eggs . . . 3. Not too "hott" stuff. 4. No, it's two parts gin and one part vermouth. 5. Dean Andrews relaxing at the Ball. 6. The Longakers entertain their table.

February 16, 1985

This year's Winter Ball was held on February 16th, 1985. Featuring the band Hott Stuff, the Ball provided faculty, alumni, students, and administration with the opportunity to dance to a variety of twentieth century music.

1. That's quite a pineapple. 2. The Noe's "stepping out."
3. It was the best of times.

"Bus Stop," by William Inge, was the first production of the 1984-85 season for the Randolph-Macon Drama Guild.

Buddy Teaster made his R-MC stage debut as Bo Decker, a cowboy chasing after Cherie, a night-club dancer played by Robin Anne Floyd. Their bus is snow-bound one night at a bus stop near Kansas City. The restaurant's owner is Grace Hoylard (Christine Jackle), and the bus driver is Carl (David Foss). Each character tried to make the best of the situation by entertaining each other to pass the time. Dr. Gerald Lyman (David Ward) and Elma Ducworth (Julie Rankin) read Shakespeare and Cherie sings. Bo's sidekick and respected companion Virgil Blessing (Ned Fitch) and the sheriff of the small town Will Masters (Kent Heacock) look on.

This production was directed by David S. (Pete) Kilgore and the Stage Manager was Wendy Miller.

Page 20, 1. Bo to Elma: Do you have anything to eat here? 2. Grace: What's going on out there? 3. Cherie: Do y'all know the Charleston? 4. Cherie: Oh Bo, put me down!

Page 21, 1. Cherie: How's it going, cowboy? 2. Virgil: Just an old cowhand . . . 3. Will: Good coffee, Grace. 4. Grace to Carl: I don't want no trouble, now.

The Effect of Gamma Rays Man-in-the-Moon

This student production of Paul Zindel's play was under the direction of Kent Heacock. Centering around the life of a mother, Beatrice (Debbie Zipkin), and her two daughters, Tillie (Rhonda Lipscomb) and Ruth (Keri Sue Hoschar), the play deals with their relationships, ambitions, and accomplishments. Nanny, a charge of their small household, was played by Janine La Salle. Janice Vickery (Kate Coulter) was Tillie's classmate with whose project her gamma ray marigolds competed.

Page 22, 1. Tillie presents the effects of gamma rays. 2. Beatrice: How do you like that, Nanny? 3. Ruth to Tillie: Your hair will look much better when I'm done with it!

Page, 23, 1. Beatrice, Ruth: Wouldn't it be wonderful? 2. Janice and her cat skeleton. 3. Tillie: How could they do this to me? 4. Family trauma

"The Children's Hour" by Lillian Hellman is a drama about life at a small girls' school. Run by Martha Dobie (Monica Rueckart) and Karen Wright (Kate Coulter), the school encounters trouble when one student, Mary Tilford (Elizabeth Hood), wants her own way and will stop at nothing to get it. Her selfishness destroys herself as well as those around her. Other characters were Dr. Joseph Cardin (Kent Heacock), Mrs. Amelia Tilford (Kathy Milligan), and the other students (Denise Gerred, Debra Brooks, Anita Mrosek, Christine LaPlaca, Lorilyn Davis, Alice Williams). Also participating were Wendy Miller, Katheryn Redfern, Janine La Salle, and Buddy Teaster.

"The Children's Hour" was directed by Pete Kilgore and stage managed by Kathy Redfern.

Page 24, 1. Peggy: Alas, what light from yonder window breaks? 2. Mary: But Grandma, I don't like it at that school.

Page 25, 1. Martha and Kate: We've got to do something about what is happening. 2. Peggy, Mary, and Evelyn: Did you hear about Miss Wright and Miss Dobie? 3. Mary and Rosalie: You're going to do what I say!

Ashland

Center of the Universe

Home to all Macon students, Ashland remains a small, quiet town with a certain unique charm of its own. For many years the Bijoux, Murphy's Mart, Happy Hour and Hardee's biscuits will live in our hearts when we think of college times . . . as will the Rain, the Townies, and the Truck Stops. Since college often does extend beyond Henry Street and College Avenue, we dedicate this page to Ashland, the Center of the Universe.

1. Railroad Mall, housing Flower Depot and the Railroad Mall Cafe (i.e. Happy Hour), is an essential to life at R-MC. 2. Beautiful old houses line Railroad Avenue for many blocks south of the College.

I decided long ago never to walk in anyone's shadow
If I fail, if I succeed
At least I'll live as I believe
Learning to love yourself is the greatest love of all
And if by chance that special place that you've been dreaming of
Should lead you to a lonely place
Find your strength in love.

A man is as great as the dreams he dreams,
 As great as the love he bears;
 As great as the values he redeems,
 And the happiness he shares.
 A man is as great as the thoughts he thinks,
 As the worth he has attained;
 As the fountains at which his spirit drinks,
 And the insight he has gained.
 A man is as great as the truth he speaks,
 As great as the help he gives,
 As great as the destiny he seeks,
 As great as the life he lives.

"No man is an island, entire of itself:
Every man is a piece of the continent,
A part of the main.
If a clod be washed away by the sea,
Europe is the less,
As well as if a promontory
were,
As well as if a manor of thy friend
Or of thine own, were.
Any man's death diminishes
me,
Because I am involved in mankind;
And, therefore, never send to know
For whom the bell tolls:
It tolls for thee."

John Donne

“Whether I win or lose, American politics will never be the same.”

Jesse Jackson

In 1984 Ronald Reagan won a second term to the presidency, but it was a turning point in American politics. Geraldine Ferraro was chosen as the Democratic candidate for Vice President, giving the women's movement new life. The Rev. Jesse Jackson became a viable candidate promoting his rainbow coalition.

Reaganism appeared to win over an entire nation — pushing private enterprise, less government intervention and a new strength for American.

While all too often we are content to isolate ourselves from the rest of the world and its problems, it is important to make ourselves aware of them. These few pages are devoted to some events that exploded on the national and international scene. We should take a few moments to look back and remember the past year, in order to learn from its triumphs and its defeats; its beginnings and its ends.

"Vice President — it has a nice ring to it."
Geraldine Ferraro

Terrorism became an everyday event with the killing of over 200 American Marines, the kidnapping of various Americans in Lebanon, an attempt on Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher's life, and the assassination of Indira Ghandi.

It was the changing of the guard, not once but twice in the U.S.S.R. this year, with the deaths of Yuri Andropov and Konstantin Chernenko. Relations between Russia and the United States will now be guided in part by Mikhail Gorbachov, as the gerontocracy of the Kremlin quickly dwindles.

"I am not interested in a long life. I am not afraid of these things. I don't mind if my life goes in the service of the nation."

Indira Gandhi

“No fear can stand up to hunger, no patience can wear it out.”

Joseph Conrad

In Ethiopia 300,000 have died of starvation, as famine overtook many African nations. An outpouring of emergency relief came from the world over, but the fate of the famine victims is still unsure.

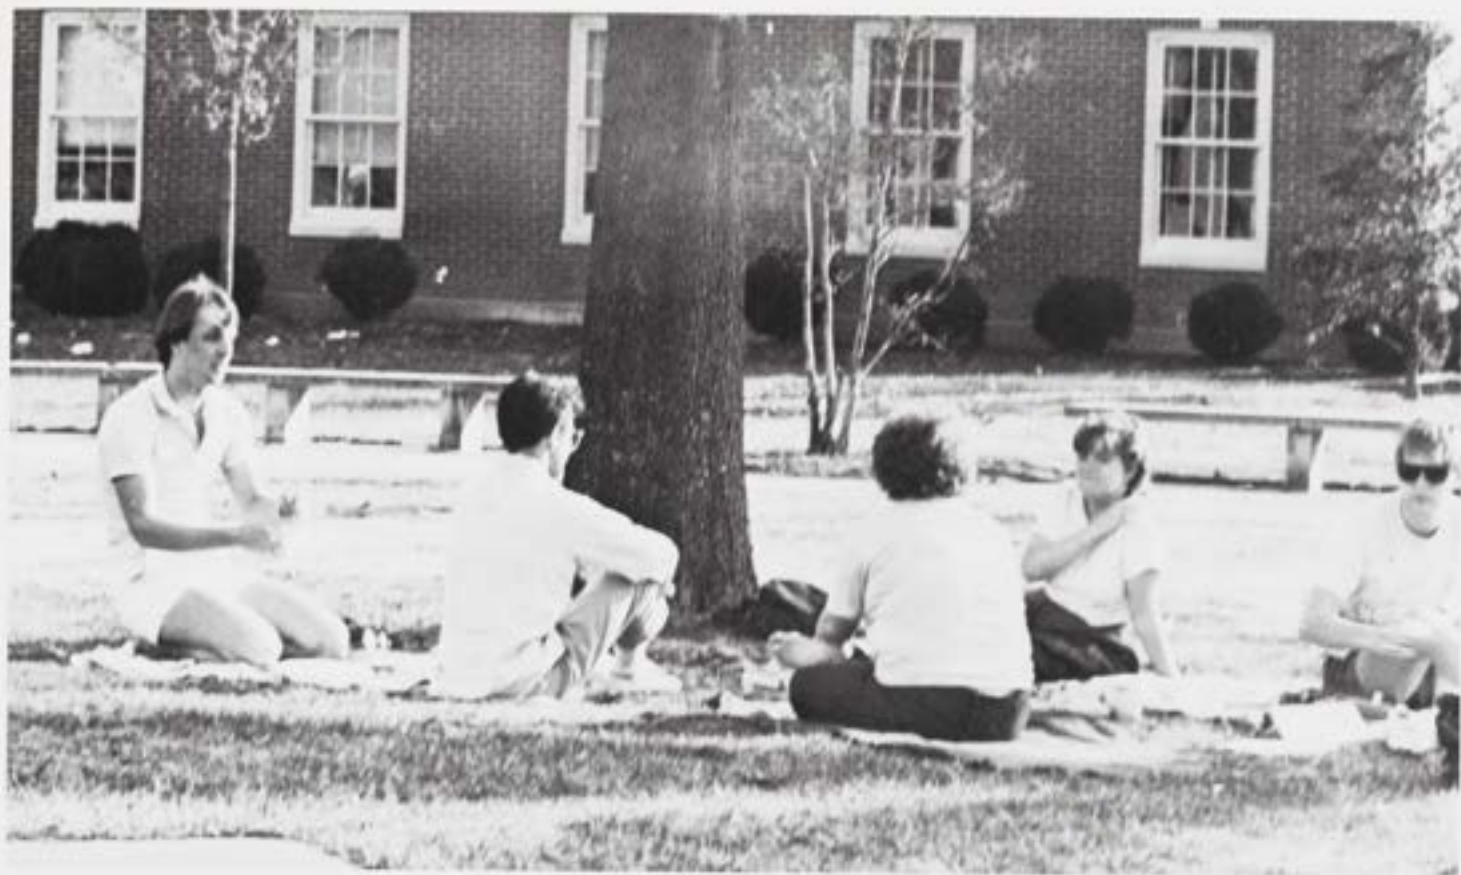

The 1984-85 school year saw the passing away of such personalities like Richard Burton, Jim Fixx, and Baby Fae, but it also saw the extension of human life with the artificial heart. The Preppie faded and the Yuppie came on the scene as American youths found a new direction and reestablished their ideals. We were met with disaster, when 2,500 people died in Bhopal, India, and embarked upon new horizons with the Space Shuttle Discovery. During the past year at Randolph-Macon we may or may not have been affected by these events, but our lives will never be the same.

“American is back, standing tall.”

Ronald Reagan

CHEERLEADING

Greek Life

"They were the best of all things, Greek — no quality more precious has mankind: what lies beyond only the gods may find."

— Constantine Peter Cavafy

Founded at New York University in 1913.
Rho Mu chapter established in 1961.

The Brothers of AEII successfully accomplished many of the goals we set for ourselves at the beginning of the 1984-85 school year. We succeeded in helping Cystic Fibrosis, the Ashland community, and our own Randolph-Macon community in the form of participating more fully within the Greek system. This was a goal we set out to achieve two years ago when we started putting our house back together. We are very proud of where we have come and where we think we can go. This year has been very good to all of us at AEII and we are eagerly looking forward to next year.

KA had a very active 1984-85 school year. We hosted Province Council, a regional meeting for KA chapters across the state, and worked diligently to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy, our national philanthropy, by selling doughnuts, placing MD cannisters in Ashland stores, and sponsoring a frisbee golf tournament. The brothers erected a flagpole in memory of Richard James Shores, a brother who was killed in an auto accident over the summer of 1984. For the College, KAs participated in the Capital Campaign. We were the IM soccer champions. The following brothers stood out this year: Jack Walker was named co-Greek Man of the Year by the IFC and was nominated to the academic All-American baseball team; Rob Trafton was named to the All-American Division II soccer team; Richie Burke was elected Senior Class president; Chris Chodnicki was elected SGA treasurer.

Kappa Alpha Theta was very active during the 1984-85 academic year. They began the year by entering the campus variety show. Next, Thetas put their efforts into making a first place Homecoming float and H-SC effigy. To raise money for Logopedics, their national philanthropy, Thetas sponsored a tuck-in service and soup label drive. For their social events, Cinderella and Initiation Balls were held at Richmond's John Marshall. They also had a campus wide party with Kappa Alpha and a "Jungle Love" mixer with Lambda Chi Alpha. It's been a good year and the Thetas are looking for more good years to come.

The Brothers of Eta of Kappa Sigma worked very hard this year to restore our house. Improvements included painting the outside and inside of the house and adding a new hardwood floor downstairs, a new TV, new Brick front steps, new front door, a new bar top and new carpet for the TV room. Our officers also attended a multi-district leadership conference and we sponsored several chapter challenges for Nationals. Homecoming was a great success, as was Hampden-Sydney Weekend; over 95% of our Brotherhood were members of the nationally ranked (5th in Nation) Yellow Jacket Squad. We now have several Brothers involved in SGA. We sponsored KΣ night at RR Mall Cafe this year on Tuesday nights. Rush was a big success with 11 men pledging KΣ. We also had a great Luau in May. We would like to honor Cody Dearing who received the honors of Pizza Hut and Kodak All-American, as well as the key to the city of Ashland from Mayor Dick Gillis; and Keith "Sleepy" Gilliam who also received the honor of Pizza Hut All-American.

Founded at Boston University in 1919, Kappa Tau Zeta Chapter was established at R-MC in 1926.

Have you seen Grace?

Dental Floss picks.

1984-85 was a year of transition for Kappa Tau Zeta Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha. In a period of one year our chapter grew from 32 to 60 active brothers, the largest the brotherhood has been in almost 15 years. But doubling in size was not the only change Kappa Tau went through this year. After two years of trying to improve on standing with our nationals, Kappa Tau was removed from probationary status. Our improvement put us in the position to win one of our national's most prestigious awards given for growth and achievement.

In order to improve our image, Kappa Tau spent 84-85 strengthening relations with the school, the community and our alumni. In doing this we were able to: Have our biggest and best Homecoming banquet ever, raise over $10,000 dollars in a telefund campaign for Our Heritage, Our Future, and start a chapter community service program. Our community service program consisted of winterization projects, assisting the L.F.C. with Clean Hanover Day on April 13th and working with local children. We took retarded children into Richmond on Saturday afternoons for movies, bowling, etc., and held a Christmas party with KΛΘ for over 40 underprivileged children. The Christmas party turned out to be an experience which was rewarding to us as it was exciting for the children.

Finally, Kappa Tau has to say goodbye to 14 seniors. Many of the seniors have seen a complete turnaround in our chapter. The foundation upon which our turnaround rests was laid by these men. Kappa Tau appreciated their hard work and dedication in exemplifying the true meaning of brotherhood, and wishes them a bright and successful future.

The men of Phi Delta Theta had a very successful year during 1984-85. The year began on a high note as everyone got naked with Steve Smith during Homecoming Weekend. In November Phi Delta participated in the 5th annual stroll for cancer. Despite this high profile on campus, the men of Phi Delta were able to maintain the third highest GPA on campus. In the spring, Phi Delta again set the pace for Rush which the pledge class of '85 reflected. As the year drew to a close, Phi Delta celebrated its 111th birthday here at Randolph-Macon.

Our major goals have been to participate more extensively in campus activities as a group and to strengthen the close working relationship between the Phi Kapp Brothers and little sisters. As an independent group the PKS sisters pledged 11 new members this year, participated in the R-MC Telefund, and played intermural volleyball. Working with the Brotherhood, the sisters helped with repairs on the House prior to Homecoming, at which we catered a reception for Phi Kapp alumni. The brotherhood had a successful rush and initiated 3 new brothers. Seven couples represented Phi Kap at Greek Ball.

Ebbie, have you heard this already?

In 1984-85, the Panhellenic Council held 2 rushes, increasing Phi Mu's membership to over 60. Phi Mu held the Third Annual Blind Date Christmas Dance in the gym and had a Carnation Ball at the Richmond Hyatt House in February. A crab feast at the Phi Mu house highlighted the month of May.

Throughout the year, the sisters and Phi's held various fund raisers for Project Hope, the national philanthropy which provides medical care for remote areas.

Kim Norman, the new president, and Dr. Buchanan attended a regional Phi Mu leadership conference in Baltimore.

Maureen Orr, a charter member and past president of the chapter, was selected by nationals as a Chapter Consultant for the 1985-86 year. She is one of four in the nation out of over 130 applicants and brings recognition and pride to herself, the Lambda Alpha chapter, and Randolph-Macon College.

Founded at the University of Alabama in 1856.
 The Virginia Alpha chapter was chartered on November 11, 1967.

The Virginia Alpha chapter has been growing and thriving since its establishment in 1967. In December we sponsored a very successful clothing drive for the Salvation Army. We have a goal of being well represented within the Randolph-Macon community. We are proud of the fact that although we are very diversified, and represented in every sport, we are still unified.

The Virginia Zeta chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon experienced a year of growth. In the fall we began an extensive renovation of the house. For the community, Sig Ep held a Christmas party for underprivileged youth and helped with the college's debate team by providing its facilities. Our brotherhood doubled in '84-'85 and we stand on better footing now than two years ago.

SPE little sisters, the Golden Hearts, achieved our goals this year. With five fundraisers, a very successful rush, and many activities in support of and with the brotherhood, the women have made this year their best ever.

Founded at Norwich University in Vermont in April 1856. Gamma Chi Chapter was established at R-MC in May 1949.

Here comes Peter Cottontail!

The school year 1984-85 was a productive one for Theta Chi. The fall semester was kicked off with the "End of the World" party, featuring "Public Art". After participating in such school events as Homecoming and Hamden Sydney, we ended the fall semester with our annual Christmas party.

Rush started our second semester with the performance of such bands as "The Limit" and "Excalibur." After acquiring 11 pledges during Rush, we went on to JMU to our regional convention, where the R-MC Theta Chi's were chosen to host the 1986 convention. In addition to such fraternal activities, our intramural teams had good showings in all of our events and we are proud of the brothers who participated in the events. Also, we would like to congratulate our graduating seniors and wish them luck in the real world.

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Back: JoAnn Cichowicz, Rebecca Byrd. Middle: Floyd Vest, Brad Cooper, Celine Daily. Front: Dr. Moores, Kathy McCardell

The American Chemical Society had various activities during the 1984-85 year, including the annual picnic in May, a reception for Dr. Frank Bolderidge in honor of his years of service to the Chemistry Department, and assistance with an alumni reception for chemistry graduates during Homecoming weekend. The ACS took field trips to the FBI training lab at Quantico, VA and to Philip Morris in Richmond. The ACS also worked with the faculty in giving tours of the Chemistry floor during the science open houses in the Fall.

ASSOCIATION OF COMPUTING MACHINERY

The membership of this Association of Computing Machinery student chapter consists of students who have an interest in computers. During the past year, we sponsored campus-wide programming contests in preparation for the national programming contest. We also wrote a program used in the Railroad Run and the Mechanicsville Run which timed the participants.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Amnesty International is an international human rights movement that seeks to help prisoners of conscience throughout the world, and R-MC is able to boast the largest campus chapter in Virginia. During the 1984-85 academic year, hundreds of letters were written by R-MC students and faculty on behalf of people unfairly detained, tortured or disappeared in South Africa, the Soviet Union, and other countries.

This year the R-MC Chapter hosted a conference on the death penalty on campus. The group also sponsored a debate on the death penalty. Other activities included Stop Torture Week and the showing of "Your Neighbor's Son" at a fundraising dinner. Six members of the group attended the A.I. Regional meeting in New Orleans.

In its fourth year of existence, the Business/Economics Club provided interested students a means to learn more about the business world. The 1984-85 academic year was filled with many activities. The club started the year with a social for new students to meet other students and the department's professors. Other activities included talks about the business world from alumni Doug White and Tim Ashbridge and tours of Philip Morris and the Federal Reserve of Richmond.

CASE

The Committee on Assemblies and Special Events arrange annually for the College a variety of cultural events. This year's roster has included The Whiffenpoofs from Yale, The Richmond Sinfonia, The Barter Theatre production of "The Dining Room," the Charlie Byrd Trio, and Free Flight.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Back: Jenny Crim, Wendy Miller, Anne DeHais, Charles Haynes, Agnes Pambid, Mary Ellen Colangelo, Marcia McKinley. Front: Teri Crabtree, Angie Jones, Megan Evans, Jim Watts, John Van de Water.

The 1984-85 school year was only the second year on campus for the Christian Fellowship, and they sponsored several activities.

For freshman orientation, the Christian Fellowship sponsored a gospel concert in the Campus Center. They also sponsored a retreat to Camp Hanover and a dinner to break the annual Hunger Task Force Fast during the fall semester.

During the spring semester, the Christian Fellowship held a pizza party and movie, a service for Ash Wednesday, and a trip to Washington, D.C.

Coordinators were Terri Crabtree and Mary Ellen Colangelo.

COLLEGE REPUBLICANS

This year, the Randolph-Macon College Republicans enjoyed our first successful year. Of course, our primary goal is to promote the philosophy of the Republican Party — namely a strong national defense, economic security for everyone, and traditional family values. This year we pursued that goal by supporting state and national Republican candidates for office. We worked to see that President Reagan was re-elected to the White House, John Warner to the U.S. Senate, and that French Slaughter was elected to the U.S. Congress. All were successful.

CONCERT CHOIR

The R-MC Concert Choir is approximately 55 members strong and performs regularly throughout the school year. The Choir annually tours to major cities and small towns within the US and abroad. Last year's group spent the month of May in Great Britain, while this year's group stayed closer to home travelling up the East coast. The choir has been invited to participate in the world acclaimed St. Moritz Festival and will give concerts in Switzerland and France in June, 1986.

CROSS COUNTRY

G. Ritter (advisor), David Hook, Mike Johnson, Mike Teaster, Dave Madison

Founded this year (84-85), the goal of the Cross Country team is to become a full-fledged cross country team (men and women) competing in ODAC. The team went to road races and two cross-country meets at H-SC. Our best performance was freshman Mike Teaster placing 20th at H-SC Invitational out of 80 runners. We are training all year round preparing for a better season in 85-86.

DRAMA GUILD

Built in 1963 in the original Duncan Memorial College Chapel, The Old Chapel Theatre houses all dramatic productions under the direction of David S. "Pete" Kilgore, co-owner of Barksdale Theatre in Hanover. The Drama Guild provides interested students, whether career-oriented or simply eager beginners, to utilize their dramatic talents. This year's performances included "Bus Stop," "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man in the Moon Marigolds," and "The Children's Hour." The Guild is always happy to welcome interested members at any time throughout the year.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

Randolph-Macon's Fellowship of Christian Athletes was just started on campus this year as a result of the requests of many of our athletes. Over 60 players have attended FCA functions this year which have included: study, fellowship, prayer, and a weekend retreat at Smith Mountain Lake near Roanoke, Va.

The goal of the group is "to present to athletes and coaches and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, serving Him in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church."

FCA is open to any past or present members of recognized school athletic programs.

The Fine Arts Society was formed in November, 1984, to promote the fine arts at R-MC. This 25 strong membered organization hopes to be a strong force in the R-MC community for years to come. Our goals are to attend symphony, opera, dance, or art events. Events this year include seeing "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," working twice for the Richmond Symphony in exchange for free symphony tickets, ushering school events, giving receptions for campus events. The Society attended a semi-formal dinner with President and Mrs. Payne in honor of the Yale Whiffenpoofs.

FRANKLIN DEBATE SOCIETY

During the 1984-85 season, R-MC teams participated in 10 intercollegiate debate tournaments, culminating in the Delta Sigma Rho-Tau Kappa Alpha National Tournament at the University of Kansas. Along the way, there were five award-winning performances, including two each by sophomore Annette Warfield and freshman Matt Pirko. In October, the team hosted its second annual high school debate tournament; in November, the team hosted its fourth annual intercollegiate debate tournament. During the 1984-85 season, R-MC teams became the first nationally to use portable microcomputers in competition in lieu of 4"x6" card files.

HOPE, a racial awareness organization, helps to enlighten and inform the campus body about the injustices of prejudice. HOPE also educates its campus body with various activities and projects about prejudice and the Black Life and the means to combat the problems of society. We also try to create the spirit of unity. In the past year HOPE has sponsored a banquet for its freshman members and supported Dr. Charlotte Fitzgerald's Sociological Program "The Issues of The Black Experience on Black Life" funded by the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities and Public Policy.

HUNGER TASK FORCE

James Stargell, Howard Wilgus, Rick Renehan, Mike Shapiro, Kevin Stargell, T. Boyd Moore, Dr. Hesse.

In its sixth year at R-MC, the Hunger Task Force held its annual OXFAM Fast which involved over 800 faculty, staff, and students in raising over $2100.00. They also coordinated a Hunger Awareness Week and co-sponsored a conference with Bread for the World on developing an anti-hunger movement on college campuses. Approximately seventy people from colleges in Virginia, W. Virginia, and Tennessee attended the conference at Randolph-Macon. Jim Watts coordinated the group.

Front: Jim Watts, Becky Peterson, Debra Beatty, Megan Evans, Liz Freeman, Margaret Reed, back: Mr. Charles Haynes, Bill Margolis, Agnes Pambid, Gretchen Gallup, Laura Throckmorton, Ann Miller, Minh Tran, Sara Bayer, Mrs. Geneva Bohannon.

The Pep Band, normally directed by Dr. "Buster" Ward, was student-run this year while he was on sabbatical. We played at most home games for the football team and at the annual Alumni soccer game and played such numbers as "Welcome to Miller Time," "Do It Again" — by Steely Dan, "25 or 6 to 4" — by Chicago, Rocky, various cheers, and the R-MC fight song. Michael Shapiro directed the group.

PHILOSOPHY CLUB

The Philosophy Club was not quite as active this year as it has been in the past. Sponsored by Dr. Bollinger, the club is represented by more than philosophy majors; its members include physics, religion and political science majors as well. In the past, the club has met to discuss philosophical issues, such as feminism, abortion, etc.

POLITICAL SCIENCE STUDENT ORGANIZATION

The major activity of the Political Science Student Organization was a talk by Professor Stephen J. Wayne of George Washington University on the impact of the 1984 presidential elections on American politics and policy. The organization also ran a mock presidential election and sponsored a speaker from the Department of State in the spring.

RAINBOW'S END

This year has been a year of growth and moderate success for the coffee house. The fall was highlighted by "King King," Cheers night, appearances by Anne Whitehurst, Keri Sue Hoschar, Andy Penland, (fill-ins by Annette Warfield), and many other talented individuals. The spring was also marked by these faces and many new additions. Most importantly, Rainbow's End, thanks to helping hands from Jonathan Van de Water, Sharron Trueblood, Kate Bedford, and Laura Maxey, has faithfully provided munchies, M&M's, coffee and tea for all R-MC students and faculty.

R-MC RADIO

Jon van de Water, Annette Warfield

R-MC Radio, a three-year old organization, has as its ultimate goal the establishment of a "live" radio station at Randolph-Macon. Through generous donations from different sources on campus, R-MC radio has been able to purchase basic equipment to "air" taped broadcasts in the dining hall. The R-MC disc jockeys play their choice of music during their shows and announce any campus news or upcoming events.

SHOTOKAN KARATE CLUB

The Randolph-Macon Shotokan Karate club was founded in 1982 by Raymond Berry. Its purpose is to further the study of karate-do in America, following the leadership of senior Tsutomu Ohshima and Shotokan Karated of America.

SOCIETY OF PHYSICS STUDENTS

The Society of Physics Students is the national student affiliate organization of the American Institute of Physics. The goals of SPS are to promote interest in physics among physics students, faculty, and the general college, and also to serve as a means by which physics students can help each other and share common interests through activities. This past year the group participated in Science Day, a number of speeches and seminars, a trip to NASA-Langley and established a chapter of $\Sigma\Pi\Sigma$, the national physics honorary society.

Back: Steve Roach, Keith Leonard, Front: Dave Tiller, Wendy Tebay (President), Ed Hornlein (Secretary), Jackie Haiber.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES BOARD

The Student Activities Board is made up of senators from the Student Government Association. The Board has instigated many new programs. It sponsored free movies at the Bijou for students and drew up a constitution for different Randolph-Macon clubs and organizations to use in their charter.

Bill Sperry, Richard Shipley, Ritchie Burke, Steve Vermillion

STUDENT ADMISSIONS CLUB

The Student Admissions Club, formerly the Student Admissions Committee, was once again active in encouraging prospective students to attend Randolph-Macon. The group gave tours, housed prospective students, and called prospectives at their homes to give applicants a student's view of Randolph-Macon.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The SGA provided for Hampden-Sydney weekend, various dances and contest. The career seminars, Blood Drive, Cancer Dance, study breaks, Alcohol Awareness Seminars, speakers, and work on the attendance policy were just a few of the areas that the SGA tried to stimulate community service and involvement in the school.

VOLUNTEERS IN ACTION

Mrs. Joanie Curtis, (Hanover County Coordinator), Lol Meyers, Nancy Green, Steve Owens, Debra Beatty, Mr. Charles Haynes, Jonathan Vaile

Volunteers in Action coordinates the recruitment and placement of student volunteers in a variety of local programs. This year students were involved in winterizing homes of many families in the Ashland area. Other students served as big brothers or visited the elderly. Several groups of students also gave their time to help the Bethlehem Center and the Hanover Learning Center. In May the Volunteers in Action sponsored a huge Bike-a-thon to raise money for St. Jude Children's Hospital.

WAGING PEACE

Front: Jody Venn, Sara Bayer, Margaret Reed, Debra Beatty, Becky Peterson, and Megan Evans.
Back: Greg Treuth, Charles Haynes, Diane Tedeschi, Russell Bourne, Michael Shapiro.

Waging Peace is an organization of students and faculty dedicated to working for peace. At regular meetings open to the campus, the group discusses important issues such as the Strategic Defense Initiative, Nuclear Winter and Central America. Waging Peace also sponsors other educational activities. This past year, for example the group heard Dr. Helen Caldicott and visited the Richmond Peace Center. Members of the group have also visited local churches to talk about the nuclear arms race. Debra Beatty coordinated the group.

WASHINGTON LITERARY SOCIETY

Front: Lynda Farley (Vice President), Will Schermerhorn (President) and Liz Harrison

Third: Becca Hansen, Monica Rueckart, Jim Sved, Kathy Redfern, Rick Renehan, and George Emmerson.
Fourth: Stephanie Davis, Heidi Flythe, Preston Bryant, Ben Melton, and Elena Belon

The school's oldest existing club, the Washington Literary Society, went places this year: a trip to see Cats in Washington, D.C., excursion to the Universe planetarium in Richmond, a night of old celluloid at the refurbished, refabulous Byrd Theater, and other excursions gave the Society a view of the literary world beyond the perennials, more dignified, and equally integral poetry readings. They also publish the literary magazine Stylus.

WORSHIP COUNCIL

Front: Jonathan Van de Water, Charles Haynes, Beth Bunch
Back: Agnes Pambid, Jennie Crim

The Worship Council is an ecumenical Christian group of faculty and students that plan and organize the weekly College Worship services. It is also responsible for the annual candlelight Advent and Tenebrae services.

The Worship Council brings together students, faculty and staff members on a regular basis and attempts to provide a sense of Christian community through retreats, social events, and worship. Jonathan Van de Water coordinated the group.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Wency Miller, Kathy Milligan, Robin Anne Floyd, Phil Jowdy, Keri Sue Hoschar, Rhonda Lipscomb, Loralyn Davis

Alpha Psi Omega is the national honorary dramatics fraternity and was instituted at Randolph-Macon to honor those who have achieved high standards in theatrical arts. Membership in the organization provides a wide range of fellowship for those interested in theater. Students are elected to membership only after participating in shows presented by the producing company, the Randolph-Macon Drama Guild, for no fewer than four semesters.

BETA BETA BETA

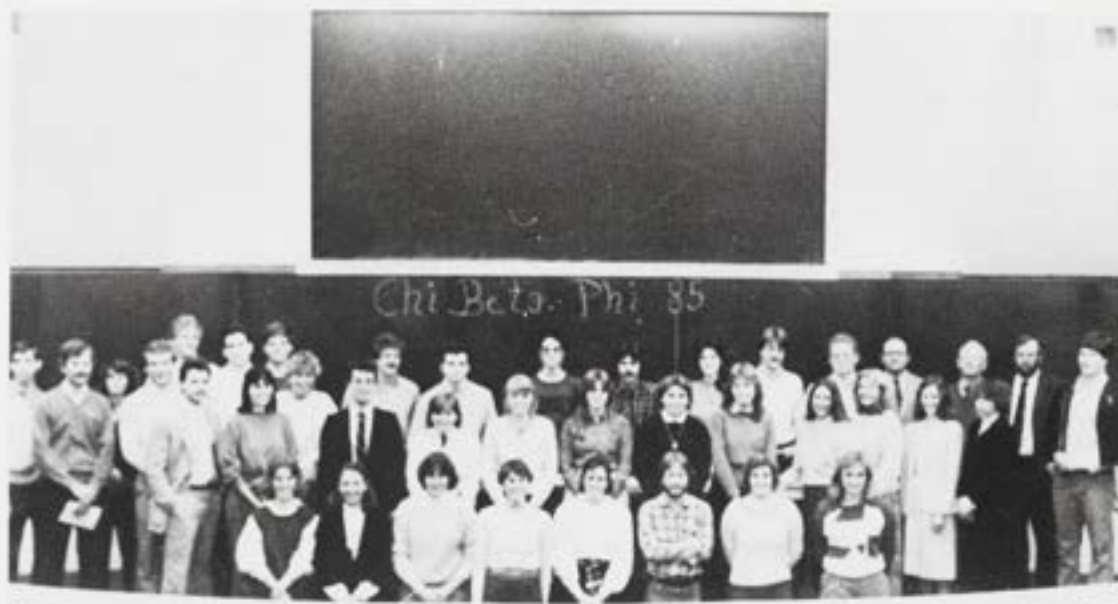

During the past year Beta Beta Beta, the national honorary biology fraternity, sponsored a tutoring service for general biology students and started a Big Brother/Big Sister program for biology majors.

CHI BETA PHI

Chi Beta Phi is a national honorary scientific fraternity for undergraduates founded at Randolph-Macon in April of 1916. Membership is limited to persons interested in science whom have been approved by the membership. The fraternity gives annual awards to one sophomore and one junior who have demonstrated excellence in science. This year's awardees were Karen Furrer and Joe Pastercyzk. The Key Award, given to the most outstanding member, was awarded to Dianne Furrer. The annual picnic was held in May.

ETA SIGMA PHI

Amber Sharp, Jennie Crim, Mary Ellen Colangelo, Ted Webster, Keri Sue Hoschar, Andy Penland

Eta Sigma Phi is the national honorary classical fraternity, founded in 1914 at the University of Chicago. It seeks to recognize achievement in the classical languages and to foster the appreciation for classical cultures in its members and in the community at large. Students who distinguish themselves in Greek or Latin at the second-year level or higher, and the winner of the Haley Greek Prize, are eligible for nomination.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

Omicron Delta Kappa is the national leadership fraternity whose purpose is to recognize student leaders in all areas of campus life. This year ODK sponsored "Invite Your Professor to Lunch Day" once a month in an effort to promote student-faculty interaction. Also sponsored by the Zeta chapter was the second annual leadership workshop in May Term, designed to assist newly elected officers in assuming their campus duties. Co-Presidents were Greg Amick and Gail Gugel.

PI DELTA PHI

Laura Gibbs, Will Chambers, Danette Bolt, Loralyn Davis, Lisa Simcox, Phil Jowdy, Aouicha Hilliard

During a given academic year, Pi Delta Phi, the honorary French fraternity, organizes a French Christmas party for the French students in the department of Romance Languages, initiates new members into the society in the spring, and prepares "something special" which is often a French play. Laura Gibbs led the group this year.

Baccalaureate

“Our college friends are the dearest.”

Thomas Jefferson

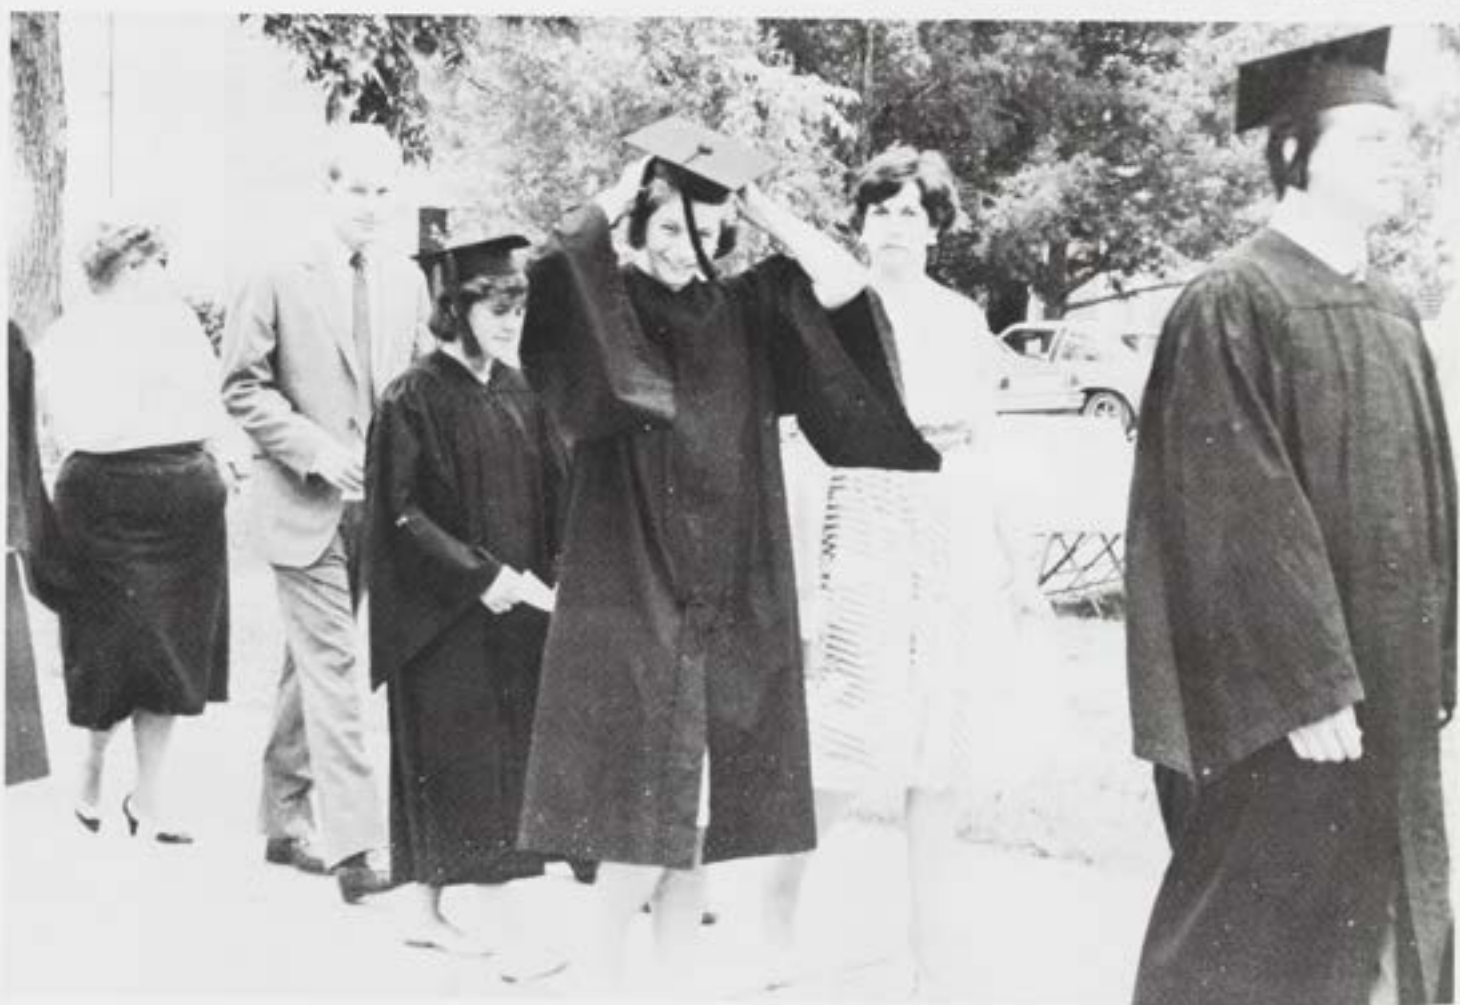

The Baccalaureate Service on Saturday, June 1st, began the 153rd Commencement Weekend at Randolph-Macon. Blackwell Auditorium was filled for the church service for graduates, parents, and friends. Lessons were read by Debra Beatty, Student Assistant to the Kern Center, David Hartley, President of the Senior Class, and President of the College Ladell Payne. The address, "The Way of Compassion: Signs of Hope in a Broken World," was given by Charles Haynes, Director of Religious Life. He spoke to the graduates of the role they can play in improving the world. Mother Theresa, he said, suffers in order to help people and to understand them. The rest of us can do the same. Each person, Mr. Haynes said, can make a difference.

Graduation

“It is, sirs, a small college, and yet there are those who love it.”

Daniel Webster

June 2, 1775 was the birthday of John Randolph, one of the two men for whom our college was named. Two-hundred-two years later, June 2, 1985, saw the 153rd Commencement exercises at R-MC with guests Governor Charles Robb and columnist Charles McDowell.

In a class of 182, there were three magna cum laude graduates (Mary Armstrong, Jo Anne Brooks, and Robin Anne Floyd), and ten with cum laude honors. Robin Anne Floyd, in her Senior Address, spoke of goals and potentials, and of what the Class of 1985 can achieve in the next twenty years.

The Honorable Charles S. Robb, Governor of Virginia, greeted the class and bestowed his good wishes to them. The main speaker Charles McDowell addressed "Politics in the Real World." He spoke of the nation's trust and distrust of politicians, the desire for a simple life, and his career in political journalism.

“Leave no stone unturned.”

— Euripides

“We shall not cease from exploration; and the end of our exploring will be to arrive where we started and to know the place for the first time.”

— T.S. Eliot
